SHAKESPEARE AND LATER DRAMATISTS AND THOSE WHO INTERPRET THEM

MISS JEANNE EAGELS IN " THE WONDERFUL THING" PLAY HOUSE .

By LAWRENCE REAMER.

OHN BARRYMORE, who is now the most interesting figure in the local theatre, has modelled his career as a Shakespearlan actor, in a measure, on that of E. H. Sothern, since he has awaited the beginning of the middle years to make his start. Mr. Barrymore is less than forty by several years. E. H. Sothern made his first appearance as Hamlet in the Garden Theatre in 1900, and in the score of years that have followed he has extended his repertoire in the Shakespearian repertoire apace with Miss Marlowe's. He has continued, with the exception of his few months at the Booth Theatre, to play only Shakespeare. Could Miss Marlowe and Mr. Sothern have returned to the stage after their official retirement and aroused the same degree of interest in the works of any other dramatist?

Mr. Sothern was about forty when he began his career in the dramas of the great Elizabethan. Otis Skinner, on the other hand, who played these roles from his youth in the companies of Edwin Booth and Lawrence Barrett, has ceased altogether to show any interest in these dramas since of his association with Miss Ada Rehan. It was with this same setress that John Drew knew the best of his days as an actor of Shakespecie. Only a few years ago he played Benedict at the Empire Theatre. But the glory of his acting in Shakespeare remains with his appearances as Petruchio in the Augustin Daly company. Mr. Drew had earlier in life, however, had the opportunities that always came in those days to every young actor in one of the stock companies that used to play Shake-

Robert Mantell played the usual round of the Shakespearian secondary roles during his years of humble apprenticeship in the English provinces, and was indeed brought to this country to act this repertoire with Mme Modjeska, appearing first in "Romeo and Juliet" as Tybalt. It was with this actress also that Otis Skinner played Romeo and similar roles after his youthful essays in less important parts. Barring the production of "Romeo and Juliet" arranged for Miss Maude Adams in May, 1899, in the Empire Theatre, James K. Hackett had not attempted the Shakespearing repertoire until he acted four years ago at the Criterion Theatre Returns From London and the title role in "Macbeth." Mr. Hackett played Mcrcutio in this performance, with William Faversham as Romeo.

they were in their grace and nobility.

Name?" they were not superior to the

If Mr. Locker deserves credit for his olds, if he, as the complicated programme seems to suggest, is responsible for the exquisite Watteau dresses in Turner should have a special word of stumes a possible variation of the na-praise for discovering in the "Georgem"

sponsible for the whole entertainment

Light on Greek Tragedy.

of appealing line and hue.

Mr. Faversham did not return to @ the list of Shakespearian actors until ventional scenery of paint and canvas, he gave the memorable productions of degree more stylistic than the pictures blins Chesar" and "Othello" in the made by lights and swaying hangings. Lyric Theatre. He did not continue "With curtains" has come to have a painful significance. Gordon Craig deplays should follow.

lust how ambitious actors still are But those were the curtains of yesterto make their appearances in these year. Nowadays our draperies are for roles the occasional efforts of the the beauties of the summer revue. Shake-peare playhouse reveal. Arthur | Beautiful as some of the blends of Hopkins is the only manager who is that David Belasco will soon give an exhibition of his interest in this field.

In the occasional representations it is the ambition of the actor which makes the ambition of the actor which makes but none is equal to the Corinthian colhis exsay possible. It was in this way that the much admired Hamlet of Wal-Hampden came before the public, which is sufficient proof of the value of this modest institution.

There is a satisfactory suggestion the fact that Mr. Barrymore and Mr. Sothern began their careers as actors of Shakespeare in so much the same way. Mr. Sothern alone among is colleagues continued in this artistic Will Mr. Barrymore do the same? He is fortunate in the possession of such an artistic associate as Mr. Hopkins. It has been unofficially latimated that "Othello," with Mr. Parrymore as Iago and his brother Lionel as the Moor, may be expected next year. Yet that is a promise of sly a few of the delights that the powers of the Plymouth Theatre may rovide. There is Hamlet, not to menion Romeo, which must come soon in the list of these rare pleasures for the theatregoers. It looks, indeed, as if the lymouth Theatre had a brilliant future before it.

Lights and Curtains.

Fig. American stage manager pos-see in a high degree the national dency to exploit any new develop-at of his craft to the fullest extent. American stage manager posears ago Joseph Urban, who is of pretty girls in striking black frocks, in the decoration of the Zieg- is perhaps the best of them all. lies than in any other examples bung a series of diaphanous bung a series of diaphanous aims across the stage of the disconcerting use of illumination in the terdam Theatre. The dancers, teaching from behind one current representations of "Medea" at the Garrick Theatre. The lights change not with any hypothetical passing of time, but to indicate the degree of the disconcerting use of illumination in the current representations of "Medea" at the disconcerting use of illumination in the current representations of "Medea" at the disconcerting use of illumination in the current representations of "Medea" at the Garrick Theatre. The lights change not with any hypothetical passing of the current representations of "Medea" at the Garrick Theatre. The lights change not with any hypothetical passing of the current representations of "Medea" at the Garrick Theatre. The lights change not with the full frankness of these with the full frankness of the full frankness of these with the full frankness of these with the full frankness of the full frankness with the full frankness of these of this idea is seen. It is safe to alarm clock could not be more exact. Bing goes the yellow light and bang comes the white one. And so it goes about the stage. These diaphacethes sway from the beginning sake, must interest the spectator. He cannot get away from the purely cannot get away from the spectator. He cannot get away from the spectator had so it goes.

AMERICAN DANCER'S MATINEE.

with all its exaggeration of con- casionally distracting, however exact will be als partner.

destroy the poetic atmosphere of the drama, which it seems difficult to confine in this tight and highly practical

Miss Trentini to Sing in Vaudeville

Will Be Heard at the Palace-Other Acts.

ISS EMMA TRENTINI has re turned to this country after an absence of four years and is that path, although he had planned signed the curtains which Isadora Dun-that "Romeo and Juliet" and other can used in her dances, and beautiful Theatre to-morrow. She comes direct from her success in London with Whirlygig" at the Coliseum. will present a repertoire of songs.

Joseph Santley and Miss Ivy Sawyer color and drapery were in "What's in a remain at the Palace a second week in Hassard Short's revue, "Bits and Pieces." willing to risk such productions even will an actor of John Barrymore's with an actor of John Barrymore's popularity, although it is promised that David Belasco will soon give an fection in such details. Robert E. Locker Cronin and Capt. Gruber and Mme. Ade-Leading performers at other vaude-

> RIVERSIDE-Miss Belle Baker, in ong characterizations; Jane and Kathumn to represent architecture, which is erine Lee, juvenile film stars, in songs, beautiful without turning the woman who wears it into a mere scaffolding, recitations and dances; the House of There are several of these cloth horse David Band and Moore and Magley it David Band and Moore and Magley in structures towering over the body of the "Flirtation."

COLONIAL-William and Gordon unfortunate women who must support Pooley, with the Misses Bessie and Zena them. Who admires such costumes? Men do not. They are ruinous of all Morin; Stone and Kaliz and Miss Laura beauty and they are no less merciful to Pierpoint in "The Guiding Star." EIGHTY-FIRST STREET-William grace. Yet designers will go on putting Seabury's "Frivolics"; Miss Dorothy Dalton in the photoplay "Black Is originality, there should be no delay in White'; Harry Langdon, with Rose and acknowledging the skill of James Reyn-Cecil, and Glenn and Jenkins. ROYAL-Miss Trixie Friganza, Miss Sophie Tucker and her Kings of Syncopation, Georgie Price and Horace Wright the music box episode. Then Miss Kay and Miss Rene Dietrich. ALHAMBRA-The Mosconi Brothers and Family, Miss Rae Samuels and Dickinson and Deagon tional colors which is at once beautiful AMERICAN-La Follette and comand artistic. Did Mr. Reynolds design the incomparable "Coral" in the ballet of pany in terpsichorean numbers and songs. Eddie Herron in "The Travelling jewels? The first of the summer spec-Man" and Miss Olive Thomas in the film feature "Youthful Folly." tacles is full of these delightful surprises FIFTH AVENUE—Fenton and Fields, Joyce and Anderson and Wright and Yet, after all, it is the dancing of this summer show which is surpassing. James Murray Anderson, who is re-The usual Sunday concerts will be given at the various vaudeville houses, will besides the Century Theatre and the is a dancing master, and inevitably the enterprise is superior in this respect. The interlude "Strike," led by Gloria Manhattan Opera House

GREEK DANCERS TO APPEAR.

Vassos Kanellos of the Royal Theatre Athena, with his corps de ballet, headed by Mile. Thalia Zanou, will give a performance of modern and classic Gre dances and dramatic pantomime at the There is a highly skilful if somewhat Greenwich Village Theatre next Sunday night. The chief event of the evening will be a dramatic pantomime version of Scphocles's "Oedipus Rex," set to the music of Goldmark and Tschalkowsky. time, but to indicate the degree of the performance will be to indicate the degree of the perfor The performance will be under the auspices of the Hellenic Art Society of America. M. Tsamados, Ambassador from Greece, and the Greek Consul Gen-give a matinee at the Harris Theatre on pre-Friday afternoon, April 9, in which he will be featured. Mars. His impersonations will attempt house, has been appointed one of the the stage is swaddled in tex-tention of the spectator back to the con-la stable background is in re-templation of a play by Eurypides or to portray his existence in ten supmed. The buriesque operatia anybody else.

The buriesque operatia anybody else.

The buriesque operatia anybody else.

The buriesque operation of anybody else.

The buriesque operation of the mechanics of "Medea" are occupant to study the introducion of motion pictures in the schools as part of the regular transfer.

One Spooky Play and Another

WALLACE IN

The UNSEEN HAND'

MONDAY—Bijou Theatre, "The Ouija Board," presented by A. H. Woods, This is a play in three acts dealing with spiritualism, in which the author, Crane Wilbur, himself plays a prominent role. Others in the cast are Edward Ellis, George Gaul, Miss Regina Wallace and Howard Princess Theatre, "Mrs. Jimmle Thompson," a comedy by Norman S. Rose and Edith Ellis, produced by Joseph Klaw. The scenes are laid in this city and there is a mingling of business and romance. The company includes Miss Gladys Hurlbut, George L. Spaulding, Miss Peggy Boland and Warren W. Krech.

ON THE CITY CIRCUIT.

Miss Marie Dressler will come to the Shubert-Riviera this week in "Tillie's Nightmare," a new version of the musi-cal comedy in which she appeared several years ago. Others in the cast are Miss Fanchon Marble, George Gorman, Leslie M. Hunt and Harry Huguenot. James K. Hackett will be at the Standard Theatre for a week with "The Rise of Silas Lapham," the dramatization of William Dean Howella's novel in which the star recently appeared for the Theatre Guild at the Garrick Theatre. Several other players of the original cast are with him.

BENEFIT AT "RUDDIGORE."

'Ruddigore" will be sung for the 75th time at the Park Theatre this Wednes-day evening, and on the occasion the performance will be for the purpose of raising funds for a suitable building for the Jewish Temporary Shelter for Friendless Children. William Danforth, Frank Moulan, Miss Martorie Pringle, Miss Cora Tracy, Craig Campbell and Herbert Waterous continue their enter-

"MANLESS ISLE" BURLESQUE.

The Liberty Girls will appear at the Columbia Theatre this week in a two act burlesque called "Manless Isle." The company is headed by Jack Conway, Irish comedian, and he will have the assistance of Vic Plant, James J. Collins and Miss Monica Redmond in various satires and specialties.

COLGATE MUSICIANS ON TOUR.

The Colgate Glee and Mandolin Clubs will give a concert here on April 5 at the Hotel Pennsylvania under the auspices of the New York Alumni Association. About forty-five men will make the trip. The Easter tour of the clubs this year embraces thirteen concerts as far south as Washington, D. C.

AROUND THE THEATRES.

The Theatre Lovers' Association will produce during the last week in April their second bill of the season. For this performance Miss Eda Heineman will direct "Another Way Out"; Miss Mar-jory Lacey-Baker, "The Rescue," and jory Lacay-Baker, "The Reacte," and Miss Maud Scheerer "The Slave with Guy Bolton, co-author of "Adam and Eva," has returned from Atlantic City, where he completed a new comedy, as yet unnamed, which soon will be tried out on the road by F. Ray Comstock Marshall Hall, American dancer, will and Morris Gest. Miss Ruth Shepley, at ent playing Eva at the Longacre, > Forrest Halsey, on whose story Mrs. Lillian Trimble Bradley based her play, "The Wonderful Thing," at the Playommittee for the Board of Education

MISS ANN MASON IN

COHAN BOOK HARRIS THEATRE

Lionel Barrymore's

Mentor Was Herne

Attributes His Success to

Guidance and Advice of Veteran Actor.

Milt Shanks in "The Copperhead" and

"Mr. Herne, one of the greatest actor-authors of his day, was the turning point in my life," said Mr. Barrymore

'His advice to me was that I should always play character parts. This was after I left the ranks of the 'Sag Harbor' company, for which he had engaged me as one of the juvenile leads and for which I was wholly unsuited.

"My first engagement with Mr. Herne began after his witnessing my perform-son. It was Mr. Robinson who told Mr.

him over the years which now separate

Despite his personal failure Mr. Bar rymore in the study of his kindly elder learned at least one invaluable lesson in stage technic. There was a scene in

IONEL BARRYMORE ascribes his success in playing such vivid personalities as Neri in "The Jest,"

Walter Hampden will begin his Shakespearean tour of the East this week at the Shubert-Crescent Theatre, presenting not only his "Hamlet," which now Mouzon in "The Letter of the Law." has been produced in New York earlier. to the sound counsel of the late James but also his "Romeo and Juliet," which A. Herne, one of his earliest mentors has not yet been seen in Manhattan. The in the theatre. latter play will be given on Monday and Wednesday evenings and Wednesday and Saturday matinees, while "Hamlet" will be performed the rest of at the Criterion Theatre the other day. the week. In the cast will be the same "His advice to me was that I should players lately seen at the Lyric, including Miss Beatrice Maude as Juliet, Mary Hall as Lady Capulet, and Miss Elsie

ATTRACTIONS IN BROOKLYN

Herndon Keane as the Nurse.
"The Better 'Ole" will be presented by Mr. and Mrs. Coburn at the Montauk Theatre with Charles Dalton in the principal role, supported by Harry Allan and Percy Jennings as the other two mus-ance in 'Arizona,' in which I played the part of an old man. He came to see the play in Boston with Forrest Robin-"Up In Mabel's Room" will be put on at the Majestic with a characteristic A. Herne who I was. He seemed taken f. Woods cast.

Harry Fox will head the bill at the for a lead in 'Sag Harbor.' The part Orpheum. Others on the bill will be Maryon Vaid and Ota Gygi and "The Love Shop," with Eddie Vogt and Harry and Miss Grace Elisworth.

At the Bushwick Miss Alice Lloyd will be the Augustus of the Sushwick Miss Alice Lloyd will came I did very hadly and get my show the sushwick and the bushwick Miss Alice Lloyd will came I did very hadly and get my show the sushwick man and engaged me of the sushwith the s

At the Bushwick Miss Alice Lloyd will came I did very badly and got my share of the headliner, with Frank Dobson in of the roasts from critics, but Mr. Herne "The Sirens" and Miss Aleen Bronson kept me a month longer before he very kindly told me to leave the role and devote myself from then on to character parts only. I was fortunate in getting his valuable advice so early in my career and in following it as soon as I did, and my gratitude goes out to him over the years which now separate as other performers. The Strand will have D. W. Griffith's Intest picture, "The Idol Dancer,"

Clarine Seymour and Richard Barthel-The Star will have Max Spiegel's pro-

MISS ANN MASON'S CAREER.

Pretty Miss Ann Mason has duplicated Pretty Miss Ann Mason has duplicated much of the experience of her grand-mother, also an Ann Mason, who was the lovely wife of John Y. Mason, holder of two portfolios in Fresident Buchanan's Cabinet. Three seasons ago Miss Mason came from Virginia to make her debut forgotten the way in which Herne riveted the attention not only of his audimenter did sixty years before. After-mother did sixty years before. After-mother than the followed her grand-mother did sixty years before. After-mother than the followed her grand-mother did sixty years before. After-mother than the followed her grand-mother did sixty years before. After-mother than the followed her grand-mother did sixty years before. After-mother than the followed her grand-mother also and mothing to do but to alt and listen. That was a good many years ago, but Mr. Barrymore never has the followed her grand-mother also and mothing to do but to alt and listen. That was a good many years ago, but Mr. Barrymore never has the followed her grand-mother and the second state of the s ward she followed her grandparent's lead after night, giving the long recital an in returning to her native State to do actuality and a reality that was maswar work. But emboldened by her success in singing and performing for the soldiers, she has gone a step further than her grandmother—adopted a stage to an even longer single speech by Milt career and gone into "The Acquital."

Shanks in "The Copperhead" he says career and gone into "The Acquital."

MISS CORONE PAYNTER -1860 BRIDE, HER MAIDS-SALLIE YARROW and LORETTA MORGAN IN "WHATS IN A NAME!" MAXING ELLIOTT'S THEATRE.

his model was Herne in "Sag Harbor." When Mr. Barrymore was asked who thought was the greatest actor he said: "I don't know. Your inquiry, however, recalls an occasion when I was told me that he wasn't sure.

SUACK VINCENT-

1860 BRIDEGROOM,

MISS GLADYS HURLBUT IN "MRS. JIMMIE THOMPSON" PRINCESS THEATRE.

MISS EAGELS ON SUCCESS

Miss Jeanne Eagels, who plays Jacqueline Laurentie, the little French-Canadian girl, in "The Wonderful Thing" at the Playhouse, has been on the stage since she was six years old. She has worked in stock companies and in a circus and has played in practically everything from musical comedy to Shakesperian tragedies. Consequently her opinions are founded on experience ured by intelligence and sincerity and the degree of success depends on the development of the former and the real ter," says Miss Eagels, "Like any other fession the stage requires long years thing would apply to James A. Herne, are entitled to them. It is the public

Dry Cold Storage Winter Furs

Send for Booklet, "The Care of Furs"

A. Jaeckel & G 384 Fifth Avenue

BET. 35th and 36th STS. Phone 2044 Graeley

Furs Placed in Cold Storage ARE SAFE FROM MOTH DAMAGE Telephone Murray Hill 5888, and Wagon Will Call

LINCOLN SAFE DEPOSIT CO. 42nd Street, opp. Grand Central Terminal

Household Furniture Stored. Warehouses Fireproof. Silverware Stored, Safety Guaranteed Against Fire and Theft. Safes for Securities and Valuables.